General Assembly. Both branches of the General Assembly completed their organization during the morning session yesterday, the dominant party having by the intervention of King Caucus, been restricted to one candidate for each office. The Senate chose J. W. Roberts, Assistant Clerk, R. K. Marsh, Door Keeper, and J. K. P. Gammon, Messenger, The House chose S. M. Ewing first assistant Clerk, and James C. Carlock engrossing clerk; M. W. Nelson and Mr. Fine, door keepers. A joint committee was appointed to inform the Governor of the organization of the two houses; and a joint resolution adopted to elect a United States Senator tomorrow, the 8th inst., in place of Hon. James C.

MORE BONNETS AND MILLINERY GOODS,-Wise is still in the field, and will on to-morrow, place on exhibition at his rooms, on Union street, a large assortment of elegant and fashionable bonnets, &c. The ladies will find there everything, in that line, they may desire. He has never made a more imposing display.

Governor was received and read.

The patrons of the Nashvi le Theatre will will not fail to recollect that Mr. and Mrs. John DREW takes a Benefit to-night. They have made a fine impression here, and we should think that the mere announcement of their benefit, would secure a crowded house.

We find the following "Notice Important" in the Louisville Journal. Mr. Schroeder is an exeditor, now engaged in the wine trade. He knows and appreciates the advantages of advertising. As we do not come within the circle of those newspapers whose place of publication is reached just now by Louisville packets, we shall be satisfied if Mr. S. will dispose of our "sample" of his Catawba, by "funnelling" the first temperance editor who comes in his way-or, if he prefers it, the editor of the Journal.

Notice Important. EN PER CENT. PREVIUW ON TEN NESSER money will be allowed by the undersigned to all who have left uppoid their debts for the last year. Twenty per cent ditto, ditto, for five years ditto, and brok n and bending Tennessee notes will be taken in full fot all claims against old " Grayback," of ten years standing. From new cu-tomers, old gold silver, and Tennessee money will be taken

All newspapers friendly to the interests of Tennessee-particularly those on the rivers where our Louisville packets make landing and deliver goods -will please copy the above, in return for which I No. 39 Market & No. 6 Union St., will send them a fair sample of my "Sparkling Catawba," "Old Bourbon," "Rye," "Cognac," fine "Havana Cigars," and other "necessities of life," of which I have just new a choice and smiling as sortment. Hardly time for laughing-don't feel perfectly well myself, but when there is plenty of wine and corn in the country, what is the use of J. H. SCHROEDER.

Benefit of Mrs. Drew.

The charming actress, who, in conjunction with her busband, has been for a week past, delighting the citizens of Nashville, takes a benefit to-night. On this occasion will be presented the drama entitled "The Knight of Arva," and the amusing afterpiece of Betsy Baker." In the former Mrs. Drew appears as the Princess Marina, and Mrs. Drew as Connor, the Rash, a part in which he is said to be unrivalled. With such an attractive bill we are sure, were the merits of the actors even less than they are, the result would be a full house when we consider that it is a benefit night, and the beneficiary an accomplished actress who has won the admiration and applause of all who have witnessed her efforts here, we shall be astonished if the theatre is not densely packed in all its parts She deserves an old fashioned benefit-let her have

L OUISA WALTON, or Louisa Winston, a likely, stoot, bright mulatto woman ranaway or was stolen from Captain Walton's (in this vicinity) on Sunday night last. Will be paid for her apprehension and delivery, if arrested out of this State; One Hundred if taken in this city or Louisa, who belongs to Gol. John T. Walton, of Bayton, Alahama, whose family is spending the Summer here, is a likely, bright melatto woman, between 20 and 25 years of ago, with a heavy suit of hour, not straight, has lost her jaw teeth, and her under Jaw protrudes slightly.

All the circumstances tend to show that she is in the city of Nashville.

the Manchester and McMinnville Railroad. ON TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27th, 1857, will offer for sale, on the premises, to the highest bidder, about 7000 Acres of excellent lands in Warren county They are gently un 'ulating, and the portions not cleared studded with fine oak, popiar, hickory, walnut, and other descriptions of timber, producing mast in abundance.—
Charley's creek, an unfailing stream, furnishing an abundance of water, runs through the centre of them, and there are, in addition, twenty fine Springs scattered through them. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of Com. Wheat Outs will the annul grains and demastic of Corn, Wheat, Oats, all the small grains, and domesti granes, and will compare favorably with the best Warre county lands. Producing grass spontaneously, in abun ance, there is no better range for cattle and sheep in the State. A portion of the lands are improved, there being State. A portion of the lands are improved, there being some eight or ten cultivated farms, with cottages, upon the tract, independent of the beautiful residence of Mr. Glascock. The whole body of them has, however, been recently surveyed and laid off in small tracts, containing from 100 to 800 scres, and fronting on a public road. In point of society the location has many advantages, churches, schools, and mills are convenient, and the Manchester and McMinnville Bailroad, which is but seven iles distant, affords an outlet to market. The town of McMinnville, the county seat, is but fine miles off, near which it is believed the great Southern University, to be established under the auspices of the Episcopai church will be located; thus enhancing the value of all the lands in the neighborhood. The celebrated watering place, Beersheba, is but 25 miles distant. The healthfulness of this portion of Middle Tennessee is proverbial, it is the Summer retreat of numbers of persons from the South. This sale will afford an unusually fine opportunity to those destrous of purchasing stock farms, in one of the best sections of the State, and it is hoped that all such, as well as those who may wish merely to obtain a place of refuge from the heats of summer, will examine these A free Barbecue will be prepared at the Big Spring, head of Charley's Creek, for the accommodation of all who
